CIRCULAR LETTER.

To the Ocmulgee Association, in Session with Smyrna Church, Monroe County, Ga.:

"Let brotherly love continue."—Heb. xiii. 1.

Dear brethren and sisters, if we understand the purpose for which our fathers organized this union of the churches, it was to worship God, yet we see and hear throughout our goodly land, where these unions have been destroyed, divided and sub-divided, churches declaring non-fellowship against sister churches, and worse—churches rending asunder, even declaring non-fellowship—one against the other.

And we know that brotherly love cannot continue, nor can we worship our God in this way, for we read in God's Word that "All thy people shall be taught of the Lord, and great shall be the peace of thy people."

Then, we know, when we try the spirits—as there are but two—that this spirit to divide and confuse is of that wicked one, who “Is ever walking to and fro on the earth seeking whom he may devour.” And, according to the scriptures, this spirit has been manifest in the church from the earliest ages. We know, also, that it has continued down to the present time.

We remember that the Apostle John fell down at the angel’s feet to worship him, but hear what the angel said: “See thou, do it not, worship God!”

We remember the Apostle Peter wanted to build three Tabernacles; also, the Church at Corinth was divided—some wanted Paul, some Apollos, some Cephas, and some Christ.

And we know, dear brethren, that the spirit of the flesh has ever led us to worship anything save the Lord Jesus Christ! Yes, often to worship our preacher, and he is worthy of double honor and should be taken care of by you for the gospel’s sake. You should do this by administering to his every need, and in faithfulness, but not puff his vanity, or exalt his pride, “For it is this spirit that has ever and will ever lead the people of God astray.”—Isa. ix. 16. “For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.”—Isa. iii. 12; Jer. ii. 8, x. 21, xxiii. 12; Acts xx. 29, 30; with many others.

But, my dear brethren, the Lord God in his exceeding and abundant mercy has blessed us with evidences that brotherly love continues. Each year for the last thirty-five or forty years, these Circular Letters, and the reports of our churches, have been peace and love.

It has pleased our Heavenly Father to give unto us able, faithful and humble ministers of the gospel, and we now love to cherish the memory of our venerable father in Israel, our presiding officer and counselor for nearly half a century, ELD. D. L. HITCHCOCK, who fell asleep in Jesus now nearly two years ago and we now mourn his death, and the loss of a father and counselor.

Dear brethren, should we not strive (not to hinder) for the things that make peace? Yes, let brotherly love continue. When we retrospect the past are we not made to feel and say, “Surely, goodness and mercy has followed us all the days of our unprofitable lives.”

When we realize that the Lord, in His mercy, has given to us another able, humble and wise counselor to preside over us—and may the Lord bless us with him—ever praying the Lord to uphold, support and sustain him and ourselves by His grace to continue in his love.

Yes, dear brethren, in bearing each other’s burdens and so fulfilling the law of Christ, this law of Christ is love. God is love! Do not hinder this love by saying we love God and hate our brother, for if we love not our brother, the love of God is not in us. We manifest this love by esteeming our brother better than ourselves. Yes, in honor, preferring one another. If your brother is overtaken in a fault, you should go to him in the spirit of meekness. If your brother offend you go to him.

"He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no cause of stumbling in him." Herein is love, not that we loved God, but he loved us. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought, also, so love one another. If we love one another God dwelleth in us and His love is perfected in us. There is no fear in love; perfect love casteth out all fear; therefore, we are made to love our enemies—bless them that curse us; do good to them that hate us, and pray for them that despitefully use and persecute us.

And now, the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead the Lord Jesus—that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will—working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

J. H. GRESHAM, Moderator.

D. G. McCOWEN, Clerk.

J. W. NEWTON, Assistant Clerk.

Corresponding Letter.

The Ocmulgee Association, in Session with the Church at Smyrna, Monroe County, Ga., September 8th, 9th and 10th, 1905, to the Sister Associations with whom she Corresponds, send greeting:

MUCH BELOVED BRETHREN—Through the kind providence of our covenant-keeping God, we have been blessed with meeting together in love and harmony. The coming of your messengers hath made our poor hearts glad, in hearing them proclaim the glad tidings of salvation by grace, and grace alone.

Love has prevailed through our meeting, with Christ exalted as our Prince and our Saviour. We were glad to receive so many of your messengers. We desire that you continue to come, in the spirit of love and fellowship, that God's name may be blessed at all times. Amen.

The next session of our body is appointed to be held with the church at County Line, Jones county, Ga., four miles east of Juliette, Ga., on the Southern Railroad.

J. W. GRESHAM, Moderator.

D. G. McCOWEN, Clerk.

J. W. NEWTON, Assistant Clerk.
